Speech Department to Present Plays

The Rose of El Monte, Three-Act Play, Will Be First of Major Productions.

The program of dramatic events for the fall and winter quarters has been announced by Orville C. Miller, head of the Speech Department. Two three-act plays and two one-act plays will be given.

The Rose of El Monte, a three-act play of Southern California life, written by J. C. Mullen will be presented October 29. It has the flavor of old, creamy California in Spanish days but it holds an exciting, quick-moving plot.

The following all-star cast has been chosen: Russell Noblet—the Colonel, owner of El Monte Rancho; Carl Leroy Fisher—Wong, a talkative Chinese servant; Marion Gibbins—Estaban, a Mexican amant; Margaret Coffman—Ramona, a Mexican-Indian housekeeper; Ernest Stallings—Pete, a smooth, rather likeable villain; Wilbur Heekin—Boone, entitled ranchman in charge of El Monte Rancho; Fayne Pickering—Rosa, a charming Spanish senorita; Doris Wallace—Darlene, a coquette from the East; Elizabeth Barrow—Mrs. Goodwin, a gushing flapperish widow and overly zealous mother of Darlene; Lucie Ebersole—Gloria, a girl who drifts in from the desert and Kirby Boyard—Jim, the ranch foreman.

Russell Noblet, Carl Leroy Fisher and Wilbur Heekin have appeared in outstanding parts in other dramatic performances.

Outward Bound, another three-act play by Sulton Vane will be given this evening of Dec. 10. One article says "After taking London by storm, this extraordinary play created a sensation in its long run in New York."

The Sales Specialist, a one-act farce and Meet the Bride, a one-act comedy by Adella Crowder Miller will be presented in Assembly programs.

Unique Entertainment Given by Women's A. A.

One of the unique entertainments of the year was given by the W. A. A. last Thursday night when the college gymnasium was transformed into the Green Kat Kabaret. Spiral confetti and balloons of all colors hanging from a low ceiling, created an atmosphere of ecstasy. Tables decorated in green were placed along each wall.

About one hundred guests danced during the evening to strains of "Paul Whiteman's Orchestra"—Miss Eudora Smith acting as master of ceremonies. During the evening the guests were entertained by several unusual features including:

Dances by Miltzie Green. Popular song hits by Ruth Etting. Dance by Tiller Girls (from London). Blues singing by Fannie Brice. Dance by Ruth St. Dennis and Ted Shawn. Violin solo by niece of Padarewski.

The menu cards for the evening read: Sandwiches—Hockey, volleyball, basketball, soccer, tennis, baseball. Beverages—Swanee, Australian Fizz, Trudgen Splash, Ederle Cocktail.

Miss Nell Martindale, Miss Weiss and Miss Juanita Marsh were hostesses.

Big District Orchestra Will Play For Teachers

Plans are under way for a big District high school orchestra to play for the teachers and others who attend the District Teachers Association meeting here October 22 and 23. Charles R. Gardner who has charge of the orchestra has sent out letters to the various high schools of the district.

Arrangements are being made for a big all state high school orchestra to play at the State Teachers Association Meeting in St. Louis in November.

According to Mr. Bert Cooper the programs for the District Teachers Association meeting will be out soon. An unusually attractive program is being planned.

Graduates in Commerce All Obtain Positions

E. W. Mounce, chairman of the Commerce Department and H. T. Phillips, chairman of the placement committee announce that every graduate of the College last year, with a major in commerce, has a teaching position this year.

The names of the students placed and the town in which they are working: Thelma Robertson, Plattsburg; Ola the Suetterlin, Stanberry; Wilma Galbreath, Clarence; Dayle Knepper, Spickard; Douglas Linville, Bolckow; Catherine Wray, Exira, Ia.; Dean Rybolt, Bradburyville, Ia.; Alleen McFarland, Trenton; Karol Oliphant, North Kansas City; Elsie Brown, Yuma, Ariz.; and Margaret Johnson, Calhoun.

Varsity Villagers Will Give Sociable Next Monday Night

The Varsity Villagers, all girls of the College who are not living in homes on the campus, are getting organized under the leadership of Dean Pike. The girls in group II held a meeting Wednesday evening and elected Miss Fayne Sutton as president. Thursday evening, group III met and elected Miss Doris Smith for their president.

The first sociable of these groups will be given in the form of a party Monday night, Oct. 12. This party will be followed by mixers for the other groups from time to time thereby increasing the opportunities for the girls to become acquainted socially and to discuss topics of importance to college life.

Miss Pike believes that The Varsity Villagers will further the academic, spiritual and social ideals among the students.

College Brevities

Miss Irene Smith, College Training School teacher was confined to the St. Francis Hospital Monday and was unable to meet her classes.

The Fine Arts Club of the College held a picnic and business meeting Monday evening of this week. Miss Olive DeLuce, chairman of the Fine and Industrial Arts Department of the College is sponsor.

In the absence of President Lamkin from the College, Dr. J. W. Hake, chairman of the physics department of the college and of the faculty council, acts as president.

President Lamkin, who is in Washington, D. C. for a week in the cause of education, said at assembly last week, that for thirty-four years he had opened school assemblies with the reading of the "first psalm."

Mrs. Mary Hornbuckle, B. S., '31, did substitute teaching in the College Training School Monday in the absence of Miss Dora B. Smith, of the College faculty, who was unable to meet her classes.

P. A. Sillers, B. S. 1931, is teaching and coaching at Hardin this year. He has classes in World History, agriculture, freshman manual training, seventh and eighth grade citizenship and physical education classes, in addition to his high school coaching duties. Mr. Sillers won a place on the all-star M. F. A. football team last year at guard position.

Misses Mabel and Roberta Cook, graduates of the College, and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cook, are now teaching in the St. Joseph Schools. Miss Roberta Cook is teaching at Benton High and Miss Mabel Cook is an instructor in the St. Joseph Junior College.

Malcolm Clough, who has been in school here during the last two years, entered the College of Agriculture at Missouri University, this fall. He expects to finish his work there in two years and take up the teaching of vocational agriculture.

Miss Blanche H. Dow, of the College faculty, sailed for Europe last week for a year of study and travel. This is not the first trip abroad for Miss Dow who is recognized as an outstanding instructor, speaker and writer.

Livestock Classes Make Trip to Baby Beef Show

R. A. Kinnaird and the twelve members of the class in Types and Market Classes of Livestock, made a trip to St. Joseph Wednesday, September 30 for the purpose of attending the Baby Beef Show, and to visit the livestock market. Phases of the trip included a study of types and classes of live stock on the market at that time and visits to the packing plants and other places of interest to the group.

Members of the agriculture class in Fruit Production, had an opportunity to study methods of picking, packing, washing, and storing fruit in commercial orchards, last week, when a visit was made to three large orchards near St. Joseph. The girls of the class served a picnic lunch which the group seemed to enjoy very much. Mr. Schowengerdt is the instructor of the class.

Reba Buttler and Kirby Boyard were recently elected to membership of the Dramatic Council.

Tell your friends to come—Friday night.

Primary Education Fostered by Merger

Kindergarten Union and National Council Vote to Unify Activities.

The year 1931 will probably stand as the time for the culmination of hopes for the unification of all interests of childhood education, for only recently the International Kindergarten Union and the National Council of Primary Education united as the Association for Childhood Education.

In September the membership of the local council of the National Council of Primary Education became an active council of Association for Childhood Education with a purpose to carry on the same type of activities which the local council has found helpful in the past. The name of the local chapter, now is The Association for Childhood Education, and it will no doubt be known on the College campus as the A. C. E.

The International Kindergarten Union for many years has been a well defined force in promoting kindergarten education and its related interests. The younger organization, the National Council of Primary Education which was organized in 1915, because of a great need, has grown rapidly and has been very influential in promoting better conditions for children and teachers throughout the country. Its membership is large, active and widely scattered.

A common interest in children, an increasing realization of continuity of growth and education, and a willingness to subordinate the purposes and forms of separate organizations to these major ends, combined to bring about this unification. Thus the National council of Primary Education and the International Kindergarten Union lose their separate identity and are called upon to meet and accept the high challenge of a large and enriched opportunity to carry out their common purposes through the newly formed organization—Association for Childhood Education.

Many of the college students are members of the 128th Field Artillery Band that is directed by Mr. Hickernell.

Let's all go—Friday night.

Newman Club Elects Officers at Meeting Held Here Last Week

At the first meeting of the Newman Club of the College Tuesday September 29, it was voted to enter the club into the National Federation of Catholic Clubs.

Other matters taken up by the group were the selection of officers, the appointment of committees and the arrangement for a party dance to be held at the Club on October 6.

The officers elected were: President, Wilbur Heekin; vice-president, Luke Palumbo; secretary, Marcella Spire; treasurer, Irene Franken. The following committees were appointed: Social, Maud Waltemath, Mary Ellen Horan, and Mary Mildred Merrigan; courtesy, Marcella Spire, Fayne Spire, and Joe O'Connor; house, Irene Gallus, John Whan, and Bertha Spire; membership, Ralph Heekin, Clarence Davis, and Marguerite Waltemath.

A letter from Miss Katherine Frank, member of the faculty of the College who is on leave studying at Iowa University, states that there are 350 active Newman club members there at Iowa City.

One-Act Play Will Be Given by Dramatic Club

The feature of Thursday's Dramatic Club program, to be held in Social Hall, at 11 o'clock, will be a presentation of the one-act play, "The Trap," under the direction of Donald Robey. Students interested in belonging to the Club should see Maxine Wood, secretary, not later than Thursday of this week. Only members will be admitted to meetings, hereafter.

The program, last week, attended by fifty members of the club, consisted of a vocal solo by Edson Miller, of Union Star, and Cecile Gist, of Albany.

Articles Are Published

Two articles written by members of the College faculty appear in the High School Teacher magazine for September. E. W. Mounce, chairman of the Commerce Department has an article on Labor and the Machine, and Dr. O. Myking Mehus, of the Social Science Department, has an article in the magazine, concerning wholesome motion pictures.

Sigma Tau Meets
Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary English fraternity, held a short business meeting at five o'clock, Tuesday, September 29, in room 228. The next meeting will be at five o'clock, Wednesday, October 14, at the home of Miss Dykes.

Help beat the Bears—Friday night.

Miss Bowman and Miss Smith Tour Parts of Europe

Miss Estella Bowman, instructor in English, and Miss Dora Smith of the College Training School faculty, who sailed for Europe last May, for the summer, aboard the ship, Empress of Australia, said that J. B. Priestley, an English novelist, was among the passengers.

During the summer Miss Bowman took two courses in English literature at Cambridge University. While abroad she visited in France, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, and England. She says that the people move much slower in Europe than in the United States, and they work later and have their dinner at a later hour than we have ours. On the ship, Duchess of York, on which Miss Bowman returned, Earl Jellicoe, the admiral of the English fleet, was the most noted passenger.

While Miss Smith was abroad she was interested in seeing outstanding places of art and history as well as observing the customs of the people. She was in France, England, Italy, Australia, Czechoslovakia, Germany, and Belgium. When asked about her opinions of Europe, Miss Smith said "There isn't a single country I wouldn't like to visit again. One needs to spend months to really appreciate and understand old Rome. I think Florence, Italy was delightful. I should like to go back to England again and visit all the little historical spots."

Musical Notes

Charles R. Gardner of the Music Department has begun work in chorus, and men and women's glee clubs. There are seventy voices in chorus, forty in the women's glee club, and thirty in the men's glee club.

H. O. Hickernell, who has charge of the band and orchestra reports that there are thirty-five people in each organization. Miss Morris, violin instructor, plays in the orchestra.

Many of the college students are members of the 128th Field Artillery Band that is directed by Mr. Hickernell.

Miss Katherine Coffey, music student, is directing both the girls' and boys' glee clubs of the college high school. There are twenty-seven members in the girls' glee club.

Beginning with the winter term the College Demonstration School will introduce class lessons in the various band and orchestral instruments. These class lessons will be taught by student teachers under faculty supervision. This will lead to the organization of bands and orchestras in the school.

Social Science Club Elects Officers Thursday

A discussion of the seventh district election in Missouri led by Wilbur Heekin, was one of the features of the program of the Social Science Club meeting Thursday evening October 1 at the College.

Two other discussions, the English Round Table and Indian situation, led by Marie Day, and the Financial Crisis, led by Clinton Hash, held attention of the group for a time.

The organization selected officers as follows: President, Clinton Hash; vice-president, Vandetta Pierce; secretary-treasurer, Andrea Brazilton.

The next meeting will be Thursday evening, in Social Hall at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. Foster Will Speak

Dr. H. A. Foster will be the chief speaker at the Men's Monday Forum next Monday. Some new members will probably be initiated into the organization next week.

Pan Hellenic Council Elects

The members of the Pan Hellenic Council have elected the following officers to serve this year: Katherine Gray, president; Margaret Lindley, corresponding secretary; Minnetta Knox, recording secretary; Isabel McDaniels, Stalcup, treasurer. Others representatives are: Grace Helen Goodson, for Alpha Sigma Alpha; Velma Dowls for Sigma Sigma Sigma.

Y. M. Secretary Visits College

Leslie E. Elcheberger, of Topeka, Kan., student field secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was a guest on the campus last Wednesday. After offering the prayer in the College assembly, he went to the Maryville high school where he addressed the Hi-Y Club, and met with the cabinet. He spoke in the afternoon before a class taught by Q. Myking Mehus. The Y. M. C. A. cabinet had a dinner followed by the regular weekly meeting of the organization. Mr. Elcheberger spoke to the membership. He and his family will leave this country October 16 to take up "Y" work at Honolulu, Hawaii, for the next few years.

First conference game—Friday night.

Committees For Dads' Day Named

Students From Each Class and Organization Will Aid in Arranging Program.

Dads' Day one of the biggest events of the year, for College students, is coming soon. Dr. O. Myking Mehus, chairman of the arrangements committee for the Day, which is set for October 30, announces that the following students from various organizations and classes on the campus will assist faculty committees in making the Day a big success:

Ruth Matlock, Alpha Phi Sigma; Marjorie Kelley, Estelle Campbell, Kappa Omicron Phi; LaVerna Wells, Mrs. Marian Gann Vail, Girls' Glee club; Halbert Catterston, Norman Clough, Y. M. C. A.; Grace Goodson, Virginia Miller, Green and White Peppers; Ann Adams, K. Virginia Myers, Alpha Sigma Alpha; Albert Gray, Howard Cofer, sophomore class; Carl Leroy Fisher, Social Science Club; Marvin Shambarger, Forensic Union; H. Jerome Smith, Kirby Boyard, Dramatics Club; Albert Krook, Howard Cofer, Sigma Tau Gamma; William Yates, John H. Heath, Sigma Mu Delta; Elwood William, Max Stalcup, Growlers; Ruth Miller, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Wilbur Heekin, Russell Noblet, Law Club; Rachel England, Loretta James, Women's Athletic Union; Donald Johnson, Ruth Parman, Sigma Tau Delta; Maude Waltemath, Aletha Besinger, Residence Hall; Lucille Leeson, Ruby VanSant, Y. W. C. A.; Dorothy Glenn, Ruth Miller, Primary Council; Wilma Lewis, Ruth Stewart, Chorus.

A committee composed of Carl Leroy Fisher, chairman, Donald Johnson, and Miss Wilma Lewis will make arrangements for the music of the day.

Miss Lucille Leeson, Miss Grace Goodson, and Miss Glenn will be in charge of the poster making. Wilbur Heekin will put up the large Dads' Day sign.

Arrangements for dads and students to sit together at the football game at night will be arranged by Max Stalcup.

See you at the Athletic Field—Friday night.

OVER THE LIBRARY DESK

The busiest place in the library is generally found to be the reserve book room. The West library contains all the books placed on reserve by faculty members for the use of their students. There is no occasion for conversation, confusion or disturbance of any kind in that room. It is a place in which the student should feel like getting a book and settling down for a period of undisturbed study.

The faculty members to whom the library staff would like to send flowers before they die, are those that hand to the librarian a reasonable typewritten list of reference books, with class numbers given, for each course offered.

As soon as a new term program is printed, the books may then be placed on reserve, ready for the class to use at the very beginning of the term.

The M. S. T. C. student goes to the shelves, selects the book wanted and returns it to the shelves as soon as he has read it. In this way some other student gets a chance to use the book before the end of the period. When the Golden Rule is observed by all it seldom happens that all the students do not get an opportunity to read the books referred to.

Education Week Will Be Held Here During November

President Lamkin has asked the Public Relations Committee to take charge of the Eleventh annual American Education Week program at the College, November 9 to 15. Dr. O. M. Mehus is chairman of this committee.

The general topic this year is "What the Schools are Helping America to Achieve."

County Superintendent, W. H. Burr, has promised the cooperation of the rural schools of Wadaway county in this project. Several organizations at the college will give special programs, during education week.

Senior Class Organizes and Elects

At the meeting of the senior class last Wednesday, officers were elected as follows: Norville Saylor, president; R. Dell Chick, vice-president; Neva Bruce, secretary, and Ernest Stallings, treasurer. Representatives to the Student Council have not been elected.

Expect Battle With Bears

The Bearcats are looking forward to a real battle with the Springfield Bears, when they invade the Bearcat Lair, here on the College field, Friday night, October 9. Let's all be there.

Enjoy All-School Dance

The girls at Residence Hall and other students enjoyed the all school dance at the Hall, last Friday night, "Rusty" Sellers' orchestra furnished the music.

Woof! Woof! De Bears are coming --got loose at Springfield --- headed this way.

Everybody Watchout!

First Conference Game.

Friday Night 8 o'clock

College Athletic Field.

Admission 75c.

No extra charge for reserved seats at Kuchs Bros.

Some say we will—some say we won't—but the Bearcats howl and growl—and we hope we can.

STROLLER

The Stroller always happens in on the best of things. This time it came in the form of a letter to a certain yet leader—Here it is:

"Dear Dick: Here is a ten spot, it seems but a dot, yet I am sure it will not, from your life, happiness blot. While I'm just about 'shot,' it's not all that I got, and I'll stay till I rot, keep the home fires red hot, and bring home the bacon, vot?—Dad."

The Stroller is thinking about changing his major subject to agriculture. Well, at any rate, if he doesn't change his major, he wants to go with Mr. Schowengerdt and his agriculture class to the cider mills in Kansas, the next time.

Sure we all like to step out on the lawn or into the woods these fine October days and see the squirrels hustling food for winter. Examinations for them are serious. They have to pass or starve. The Stroller has it from good authority that in winter, on a certain Maryville church lawn, squirrels are often seen to come down from their nests and dig in the snow, which is sometimes a foot deep and get a nut, which they have carefully buried and patted down there for winter. The authority also says that a squirrel never has to dig in the snow for the nut but once. S. T. C. students might accidentally get an idea for examination time, from this, for themselves. The Stroller thinks the squirrel isn't so dumb. Of course he barks instead of whistling.

Flora Scheffesky according to a report in Botany class, has made the discovery that the native "fruit" of Ireland is the potato. Anyway, she suggests that it bears its fruit under the ground.

Primary Council Tea-Dance

The Maryville Chapter of the Primary Council held a tea-dance, October 1, from 4 to 6 p. m., in Social Hall. Decorations were used in a color scheme of green and yellow. Miss Pike dean of women, and Miss Irene Smith, assisted by Mary Margaret James, Nina Bruce, and Ruth Miller, served.

The College and college high school student directories are off the press and will soon be distributed.

Everybody help the Bearcats—Friday night.

The Northwest Missourian

Official Publication of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College.
Entered as second class matter November 9, 1914, at the Postoffice at Maryville, Mo., under the act of March 3, 1879.
Published at Maryville, Mo., each Tuesday of the College year.
Stephen G. LaMar, Editor.

Here is a little secret or trick of the trade, according to some successful students, who usually find time to make good grades as well as take a part in a great many College activities. It is suggested that students schedule their time or arrange to study at least two of their classes at a definite time each day. This will help them find time to study for their other classes, and to develop the habit of doing things when they should be done. This habit will then cause "the evil one", procrastination, to fly far, far away.

Lord Arthur Ponsonby, a prominent member of English parliament, is given credit for the following statement: "Peace talk in war time is declared criminal." War talk in peace time is infinitely more criminal. What did this man mean? What is

Work on Yearbook Starts With Rush

Business Manager and Editor Urge Co-Operation—Noted Artist to Judge Queens.

Perhaps some of the students as well as instructors have noticed the stern, even severe, look which at times has been seen flitting across the noble face of Clarence Woolsey. There may be reasons.

At any rate the following admonitions somewhat mixed with information have been set forth by the business manager of the Tower, Mr. Woolsey, and by the editor, Miss Qualls:

1. The work on the Tower was off with the gong for the 1931-32 classes of the fall term.
2. The engraving contract has been let and the bids for printing are being considered.
3. This year it will be necessary to print at least seven hundred copies of the book, which is a substantial increase over the number published last year.
4. The budget for the book has been reduced this year and it will be necessary for the students to give their cooperation to the staff if the standard of the book is maintained.
5. Right NOW is the time to have your picture taken. Of course this is the same old cry that has been raised by all annual staffs, but this time "the wolf is coming", and the problem seems to be even more pressing than in past years.

If you want to get out and help someone or at least make an effort to do something worth while, just step down to Crow's or Marcella's studio and have your picture taken. That is the most important thing you can do to make your year book a success.

James Montgomery Flagg, artist, author and illustrator, of New York has consented to help out with the year book "The Tower."

Mr. Woolsey, business manager, wrote to him recently and asked him to judge the photos of the M. S. T. C. girls, selected by the various classes for Tower queens.

Pay Alumni Dues

Graduates and former students of the College should pay their Alumni Association dues to Stephen LaMar, the Alumni secretary in room 212 at the College, or to Miss Marjorie Sawyers at Plattsburg. The dues will include the Northwest Missourian, which is issued each Tuesday in combination with the Maryville Daily Forum. Mr. Lowell L. Livengood, Maryville attorney while Miss Marjorie Sawyers, B. S. 1931, who is teaching at Plattsburg is treasurer.

Alpha Phi Sigma

The Alpha Phi Sigma, honorary scholastic fraternity, held its first meeting last Thursday evening and re-elected H. R. Dieterich its former sponsor, co-sponsor with Stephen G. LaMar. Miss Maxwell was elected as temporary secretary.

The chapter was presented with its charter, beautifully graced by an in-laid frame, which was the workmanship of its president, Glenn Duncan. Business and a picnic will hold sway the next meeting.

Wins Scholarship

Donald Gillis, a former S. T. C. student, who is now enrolled in Texas Christian University at Fort Worth, Texas, recently won a scholarship in music for his ability to play the trombone. Donald was a member of the College band and orchestra while in school here.

the importance of a statement like that? Did he intend for us to believe that one would be incarcerated in a prison for championing that practice of war during a period of peace? No, this is not the meaning of this pronouncement. This would probably be in a better condition socially, politically, and economically, if such were the meaning of Lord Ponsonby's statement.

On the other hand, any person who inadvertently or otherwise publicly makes known his opposition to war and its concomitant evils, will quickly inherit the opportunity to sample the menu of one of our Federal penitentiaries. One man, during the late World War, made the remark that war was the cause of a great amount of profiteering and was rewarded for this truthful statement, a twenty year sojourn at Leavenworth where he could reflect upon the peculiarities of human nature.

What Lord Ponsonby did mean was that talking war in peace time would develop a militaristic, chauvinistic, and apprehensive attitude which is a crime against the higher ideals of mankind, a crime against civilization and against man's intelligence. War talk at any time is fatal to cooperation and goodwill among the nations of the world.

High School P. T. A. Holds Meeting With 35 in Attendance

Despite the inclement weather, the high school unit of the P. T. A., held its regular meeting last night. About thirty-five members were in attendance.

The program which was in charge of Mrs. Lloyd Gest was opened with the singing of several numbers of P. T. A. songs under the direction of G. E. Brumbaugh. A short business meeting was held followed by the main speech of the evening, which was given by Supt. J. L. Lawing who explained the plan for feeding the children who were in need.

Supt. Lawing spoke of the hearty cooperation which he had received from all of the businessmen of the city in his efforts to secure provisions for this undertaking, and spoke very highly of the ready response made by the various organizations of Maryville to serve the meals.

His talk was followed by a round table discussion of what could be done by the high school P. T. A., to aid in meeting the situation.

The following committees were then named:

Membership committee, Mrs. Steve Donahue, chairman.

Program committee, Mrs. Earl Henderson, Laura Hawkins, Frances Remus, Mrs. Carl Wiles.

Publicity, Bertha Northcutt.

The program was concluded by a social hour at which time refreshments were served.

Worrying About— Blood Pressure

At the first sign of danger, take a laxative. Out down on alcohol, coffee and tobacco. Eat lightly for several days. Take a tablespoonful of mentha pepsin before meals to make digestion as easy as possible. Keep quiet until your stomach is settled and the dizzy spells have passed. Have your physician check your blood pressure at frequent intervals. Continue to protect yourself by taking mentha pepsin before every meal. (You can get Dare's Mentha Pepsin from Gaugh & Evans or any other reliable druggist). Avoid heavy food and too heavy meals—especially at night.

Do this faithfully and the chances are that you will prevent—or at least postpone—the danger of a stroke.

PAIN IN YOUR SHOULDER?

Use Tysmol for Relief

Knife-like jabs of pain in the vicinity of the shoulder blade are generally due to neuritis, brought on by exposure to draughts or sudden changes of weather. In some cases there is stiffness or soreness in the muscles, making it difficult to raise the arm.

The safest and easiest way to relieve such an attack is to apply a small quantity of Tysmol over the affected area. This soothing, healing preparation is quickly absorbed through the pores and carried to the throbbing aching peripheral nerves.

The pain usually stops at once, and in a very short time the last trace of soreness should disappear.

Tysmol is absolutely harmless—free from drugs. Recommended for all forms of nerve pain, whether caused by neuritis, neuralgia, sciatica or rheumatism. Sold by leading druggists. Always on hand at Maryville Drug Co.

The club will hold open discussions, debates on leading issues, will have a newsboy to report at the meetings current happenings in the world, will publish a leaflet, with special emphasis on editorial opinion; will encourage correspondence with foreign students, and will invite outside speakers.

Fifteen students have signed the petition for organization. They follow: Milo Porterfield, Kenneth L. Culver, W. C. Sparks, C. C. Robertson, J. Wilbur Heekin, Ewart Evans, Lawrence Wilson, Max Stedman, H. Jerome Smith, Paul Frandy, Veldron Anderson, Edwin Leazenby, Russell Nisbet, Fred Lindsey, and Wallace Culver.

H. S. Thomas, principal at the Maryville high school, was elected president of the Northwest Missouri Big Six High School Athletic Association for the coming year at the annual meeting of the conference at the Hotel Robidoux Saturday in St. Joseph. R. J. Westfall, superintendent of schools at Savannah, was chosen vice-president, and D. H. Murphy of St. Joseph Lafayette high school was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The purpose of the meeting, in addition to the election of officers, was to arrange the Big Six Conference basketball games for the coming winter. Each team finally arranged two games with each of the other schools in the conference, but as Coach Wallace Croy of the local high school said "it was root hog or die." Coach Croy said that he had a hard time getting games scheduled for the Spoofhounds, but, after scheduling three Big Six games for the third week in January, all of the local games were arranged. A complete schedule for all of the Big Six teams was not obtained by either Mr. Croy or Mr. Thomas, for they said they had hard enough time getting their own. However, a complete Big Six high school basketball schedule will be published in this paper before long.

The Spoofhound schedule is:
Jan. 12—Chillicothe, there.
Jan. 15—Savannah, there.
Jan. 16—Trenton, here.
Jan. 23—Benton, there.
Jan. 29—Lafayette, here.
Feb. 5—Savannah, there.
Feb. 12—Benton, here.
Feb. 19—Trenton, there.
Feb. 23—Chillicothe, here.
Feb. 26—Lafayette, there.

Big Six Teams Are Put Through Intensive Drill

Kansas City, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Correction of playing defects uncovered in Saturday's games and replacement of casualties were uppermost in the minds of Big Six coaches today as they swung into intensive practice for week-end tilts which will usher in conference competition.

At Missouri, Coach Gwinn Henry yesterday started grooming a pair of tackles to replace Porter and Kerby, both of whom have ankle injuries and Captain Bittner, a halfback. Noblet, a 210 pound sophomore, and Allen, a second stringman, are being considered to fill the line posts while W. Asbury appears to be the most likely candidate for the backfield vacancy.

Work On Aerial Defense.
Anticipating an aerial offensive from the Tigers next Saturday, Coach A. N. McMillen set his Kansas State gridmen to work on a forward pass defense, a department in which the Aggies were none too impressive against the Pittsburgh Teachers. All injured squad members, except Pete Fairbank, a lettered end, reported for yesterday's practice.

Coach George Veenker of Iowa State tried out Shafroth for one of the half-back posts, vacated when Ivan Impson, suffered a broken leg bone in the Morningside game, and resumed his search for another wingman. Swaboda played at end last week but was prevented from making a showing because of an injured shoulder.

Nebraska Gets Rest.
Rest for the regulars was the order of the day at Nebraska and Oklahoma, which meet Saturday. Coach Dana

Hurls Pitching Masterpiece

Burleigh Grimes, veteran spitball artist, held the Athletics hitless for seven innings in the third game of the world series yesterday and was touched for only two hits in the last two frames as the Cardinals won 5 to 2. Only six other men have pitched two-hit games in world series contests, and the feat had not been accomplished since 1921 when Grimes went to the mound yesterday.

Bible, however, watched an intensive drill in which seven sophomores were used on the first string squad. The Sooners engaged in signal drill and light blocking practice.

The Kansas squadmen heard Coach H. W. Hargiss explain a number of new plays he hopes to use against James Milliken University, and then were put through a long session. Hargiss indicated that Campbell, an end; Baker, a tackle, and Dumm, a back, probably would see more action as a reward for past efforts.

REDWINGS NEAR TITLE.

Rochester Needs Only Two Victories To Clinch Little Series.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 6.—(AP)—The shortest "little world series" since 1928 was in prospect today as the Rochester Redwings, champions of the International League, and St. Paul, American Association pennant winners, prepared for the fifth game of the series. The Redwings needed only two more victories to clinch the series.

Drake Bulldogs Meet Creighton in First Valley Tilt Friday

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Drake University's bulldogs and the Creighton Bluejays are hard at work preparing for their game here Friday night, the first Missouri Valley conference affray this year.

Drake, which sent its team through the Simpson College Friday night without injury, holds a slight edge.

At Creighton, three regulars, Jelin, quarterback; Landvahl, guard, and Skelner, tackle, are nursing injuries.

The Bluejays held practice yesterday to signal drill and dummy scrimmage.

The bulldogs, however, kept two freshman teams busy perfecting Creighton plays to give the varsity valued scrimmage practice.

The Oklahoma Aggies are busy trying to iron out faults that were blamed particularly for their defeat Saturday at Minnesota. They meet the University of Arizona Saturday at Minnesota. They meet the University of Arizona Saturday.

Two ends and three backs are on the injured list at Grinnell College. Fritz Graflund, halfback and the latest casualty, is suffering with a wrenched back received in the Iowa State Teachers College contest. Coach L. L. Watt hopes to have some of the regulars back for the Saturday game with Cornell.

Cubs and White Sox Play Title Game This Afternoon

Chicago, Oct. 6.—(AP)—The sum of $7,421.62—the difference between the winners' and losers' pools in the Chicago baseball championship series—was the objective of the Cubs and White Sox in the final game today.

Captain Charlie Grimm of the Cubs, shoved the National Leaguers back into the race for the title yesterday and just in time. In the ninth, with the Sox leading by 2 to 1, and two men on, Grimm rammed out a double to give the Cubs a 3 to 2 triumph and square the series at three victories each.

A Pound of Butter

Takes a Ride!

OFTEN a pound of butter takes a ride of a thousand miles to find its dinner table!

In more than a hundred produce plants, Swift & Company is taking the butterfat, eggs and poultry of its 200,000 farm patrons daily, paying cash for them and sending them into national channels of distribution.

Thousands of miles of leased telegraph wires keep Swift & Company executives informed where these products command the best prices. To the best markets are rushed the surpluses of over-supplied districts. Lacking a national market like this one, many a pound of butter—and many an egg, too—would grow useless right at home, or else be sold at much less than present prices.

To distribute produce as well as quality meats, Swift & Company uses all the facilities of its over 400 branch houses and its 600 refrigerator car routes. Its great organization has 55,000 employees living in hundreds of towns where their pay checks help support community interests and trade. They are local men doing a national job, relieving producers of all selling worries and minimizing local gluts and shortages.

A nation-wide marketing system for poultry, eggs and butterfat must render a complete service, covering purchasing, grading, refrigeration, transportation, selling and delivery. The system functions smoothly when one concern undertakes all these steps. Swift & Company performs all these services at the lowest possible cost. Swift & Company profits from all sources, over a long term of years, have averaged less than a half cent a pound.

GOOD WILL TOO LATE

"Premier Laval and Brandt today shook hands with President Von Hindenburg and went into conference with German statesmen on measures of co-operation to restore the confidence of Europe."

So reads a paragraph from a recent cable from Berlin. It is welcome news, and it may foreshadow great things; but to some people in this generation it will simply re-emphasize the old truth—that the most tragic phrase in the history of international relations is the phrase, "too late."

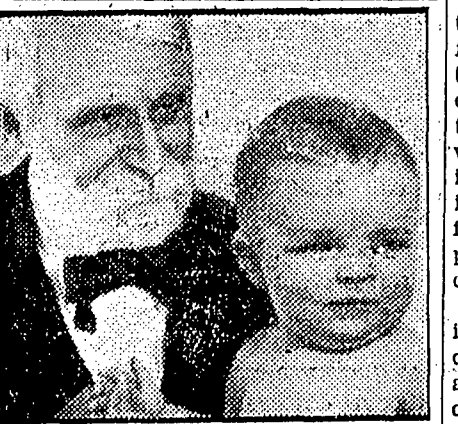

The president of Germany and the premier of France meet and shake hands. In the background, if there are such things as ghosts, there must be several army corps of spectral soldiers who are wondering why some such things couldn't have been done 17 years ago.

In 1914 the heads of great nations were wary about shaking hands. There was no talk then of co-operation between French and German statesmen to "restore the confidence of Europe." Instead the monarchs and prime ministers and generals struck heroic attitudes, and several million young men who had been told that it was sweet and proper to die for one's country went out to find out if it were so.

To be sure, conditions today are not like the conditions of late July and early August, 1914. Yet today's crisis, which takes the head of the French government to Berlin, does not contain the seeds of half as much harm for the world as the one of 1914 contained. Indeed, if the statesmen had conferred instead of rushing to arms in 1914 there would be no crisis today at all.

All of which, perhaps, is something like crying over spilt milk. The World War dead will not come out of their graves—unless to peer, dim shadows, at Franco-German rapprochement—and there is little use in talking about what might have been.

But it doesn't hurt us to be reminded that the World War was a frightful blunder, a blunder which a little sanity could have averted. There are people who can look with equanimity

GETTING RESULTS WITH THE DOLLAR

From the Chicago Daily Tribune.

It would be well for all of us at this time to give special attention to the purchasing power of the dollar. Now that it has become the world's most dependable symbol of value in convenient form for general use, we who employ it habitually to pay our way down the high road of existence ought to take special thought of the power it is able to exercise in a country full of desirable and purchasing commodities.

The national industrial conference board, after a special inquiry, reports that for the purchase of articles of necessity and also articles of comfort or luxury the dollar now has an average value of $1.64, as compared with its average value during the post-war years of intense industrial activity. The decline in food prices in the last two years is more than 28 per cent. The fall in the price of clothing is about 22 per cent.

The federal bureau of labor statistics, in a recent report on living costs, finds wide variations in different sections of the country and also in different articles. However, it reports that the trend in all prices is still downward. During the last year the decline in living costs in the fifty-one cities investigated has averaged 20 per cent for food, 8.1 per cent for clothing, 5.1 per cent for rent, and nearly 10 per cent for house furnishings.

The wage worker and his family are interested not only in the number of dollars in the weekly pay envelope but also in the purchasing power of each dollar. Where retail prices lag unduly behind wholesale prices in the general downward tendency, organized efforts should be made by consumers and their official representatives, to correct the discrepancy.

GUILTY LIPS

by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

Author of "MAD MARRIAGE"

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Pretty Norma Kent, 20-year-old secretary in a law office, marries MARK TRAVERS, son of F. M. TRAVERS, millionaire real estate dealer, after the father has sworn to cut Mark off with a penny if the marriage takes place. Norma has known Mark only few weeks, did not know during the courtship that he was a millionaire's son.

The story opens in Marlboro, middle western metropolis. CHRISTINE SAUNDERS, with whom Norma shared an apartment, and BRADLEY HART, Chris' employer, are witnesses at the wedding. Before this Norma has repeatedly refused to marry BOB FARRELL, young lawyer of whom she is fond as a friend.

Mark sells his expensive roadster to get money for the honeymoon trip. He and Norma depart for Blue Springs, fashionable resort. As the train speeds south Mark tells her there is something he has forgotten to mention.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER 26

Norma spread the newspaper out on the living room table. She bent over it, frowning slightly as she studied a column. The words were in fine print and very black. Norma pursed her lips as she read:

"Truss the bird. Rub a little butter over it and dredge with flour, salt and pepper. Put in roasting pan and place in hot oven. Baste at frequent intervals."

The three little wrinkles in the girl's forehead deepened. Somehow the instructions sounded complicated. She went on reading until she had finished the column.

It was last night's edition of the Press that lay before her, opened to the woman's page. In two columns on the right-hand side Sister Sarah, the home economics editor, gave menus and recipes for the Thanksgiving dinner. There were three menus—one elaborate and formal with roast turkey the main dish, one in which duck was the piece de resistance, and a simpler meal in which the fowl was chicken.

Sister Sarah wrote of traditional seasonal delicacies. Of course there must be dressing and gravy with the bird. Celery and cranberry sauce and all the harvest vegetables were, synonymously with Thanksgiving. For dessert either mince pie or pumpkin and there'd be no harm in having doughnuts and cider and squares of cheese handy for an evening lunch. Sister Sarah wrote about old-fashioned festivities at Grandmother's so that you could almost see an old white farm house and a jolly family gathered about the table waiting for second helpings.

Thanksgiving was three days away. For a week Norma had been thinking about the holiday. Mark would not have to go to the store and the rest would be a fine thing for him. So much of the time lately Mark had looked tired.

Cooking the Thanksgiving dinner was a challenge to Norma's housewifely ability. She was eager to show her skill and at the same time a little anxious. She had read every word in Sister Sarah's column for several days.

Turkey, of course, was out of the question. Imagine cooking a turkey for two! Chicken seemed commonplace. Norma made her decision therefore in favor of duck. She was concentrating this morning on the printed instructions for roasting a duck.

"Truss the bird . . . Put in roasting pan and place in hot oven. Baste at frequent intervals . . ."

It might be simple to someone who knew exactly what it all meant. What was "basting" and how frequent were "frequent intervals?"

Suddenly an inspiration popped into the girl's head. She went to the telephone.

London—The Vicar of Wakefield faces extinction. Wakefield is the seat of a bishop, the church is ranked as a cathedral. A bill has been passed in parliament which provides that the incumbents of churches which have become cathedrals shall be styled prebends.

Sydney, Australia—The old fashion country doctor's chaise has a modern counterpart. Dr. Vickers, a member of the Australian Inland Mission, is off to care for the natives of Mornington Island in the Gulf of Carpentaria in his plane. Radio summons him to remote settlements where there is illness as his plane gets him there pronto.

phone. "I'd like to speak to Miss Saunders," she informed the girl who answered. Another moment and she heard Chris' voice.

"Hello, Chris. How are you? Oh—fine, of course! Listen, is it all right to interrupt your business hours to ask advice about cooking. It is? Well—that's lucky because there's something I just have to know. I want to have roast duck for dinner Thursday and can you tell me what I'm supposed to do with it after I get it home from the meat market?"

Most of the answer that came over the wire was lost in laughter.

"But, Chris, I mean it! I've been reading a lot of recipes in the paper and I can't make head or tail of them. It says to baste the duck but I don't see why it needs to be sewed—"

Explanations were in order. Chris, never-failing source of assistance, explained the term "basting" in its culinary use. She told Norma to get paper and pencil and when she had them and was back at the telephone gave careful instructions for preparation of the fowl. "It really isn't difficult, Norma," the older girl said. "Just do it the way I've told you and I'm sure there won't be any trouble. Of course you want to buy your duck at a market where you know they'll give you a good one."

"Oh, Mr. Sykes always gives me good meat. I'm not worried about that part. Thanks a thousand times, Chris. You certainly are a lifesaver. By the way, what are you doing Thursday? Why don't you come out? To dinner I mean! We'd love to have you—"

Chris declined the invitation with apologies. She had an engagement, she said. She didn't specify where or with whom her dinner engagement was.

"But you will come out to see us soon, won't you?" Norma insisted.

"Of course I will. Sunday maybe. If there's anything else you want to ask about your duck don't hesitate to call."

"I won't. And I'll do it exactly the way you told me. Goodbye, Chris. You certainly are an angel!"

Wednesday morning, bright and early, Norma set out on her shopping tour. She bought a four-pound duck which Mr. Sykes, the dependable butcher, assured her would come out of the roasting oven flavorful and tender. She stopped at the grocery store and ordered vegetables, a jar of mince-meat, cheese and nuts and several kinds of fruit to make a centerpiece.

The things were to be delivered, and as Norma walked home the crisp air brought color into her cheeks. The wind whipped her skirts. There was a park nearby and she always made the trip to the store walking along the edge of the park until she had to turn. Dead leaves rustled on the sidewalk. The trees were nearly bare now. Somehow the fall had flown past without her realizing it. So much had happened in the past weeks.

The dry leaves crunched under her feet. The girl felt an impulse, swiftly quelled, to forget about groceries and cooking and the cleaning that awaited her in the apartment and to spend the morning in the park. It would be ridiculous—but it would also be grand fun.

Dutifully she turned away from the park and went on to the apartment. It had just occurred to Norma how she had spent Thanksgiving a year before. A dinner engagement with Bob Farrell. Almost the first time she had gone out with him. She remembered Bob had taken her to a restaurant down town or a heavy and indigestible dinner and hat afterward they had driven along country roads in a car Bob had borrowed.

What would Bob be doing tomorrow? He wondered. How little she had thought of him lately and how much she had occupied her thoughts a few months ago!

Norma reached the apartment and immediately stray fancies vanished. There was work to be done and the girl settled down to it immediately. The whole apartment must be immaculate. She was in the midst of the sweeping when there was a ring at the door. It was the boy from the store who waited outside. Norma set the groceries on the kitchen table and returned the basket. Then she put the duck in the ice box and went on with her sweeping.

Dinner that evening was late. Mark did not arrive home until after six. He threw down his hat and coat and told Norma it had been a tiresome day.

OUT OUR WAY

SMALL RELATIONS

More people in the store because of the coming holiday. Customers, keyed to excitement, a little more impatient than usual. Yes, Mark was weary.

He had been at Blossomdale's for three weeks now. There had been two $35 pay checks and on Saturday there would be another. The young Traverses, though they had little on the credit side of the ledger, were at least meeting their debts, paying their living expenses and, remarkable as it might seem, quite happy. There had been no quarrels since the night Mark brought home the roses. Both Mark and Norma were too tired at the end of a day to regret the fact they had no money for recreation.

"I'm so glad you'll be home all day tomorrow," Norma said as she set the last dish on the table. "You really need the rest, Mark. You've been over-doing."

"Oh, it isn't that! Just that I'm new at this stuff. Not used to being on my feet all day and don't know enough about the store. Boy, when the Christmas rush starts I suppose I'll think this was a picnic! After the second week in December the store is open from nine in the morning until nine at night."

"But they'll pay you extra, won't they?"

"Hope so. I haven't found out yet. Well, what's the program for tomorrow?"

"Dinner at two. I thought you'd want to sleep late. Is that all right?"

"O. K. with me. Say, you know there's one thing I'm mighty glad about—won't have to sit across from Aunt Matilda and hear her talk about what happened the summer of '72 in Progress City and how Great-Uncle Hiram harnessed the Indians out of their land."

"What did happen in Progress City?" "I don't know! God forbid, I never listened! Aunt Matilda's nearly 80 but she can out-talk any one I ever met. What do you say, kid? Shall we step out to a movie?"

Norma dimpled. "There's Jack Oakie in that new one at the Century."

"Let's see it!"

Perhaps the roast duck Norma drew from the oven next day was not seasoned exactly to the taste of a French chef. Perhaps its dressing could have been improved. Nevertheless the bird was beautifully roasted: It was well cooked and, according to Mark Travers, it was the finest fare he had ever eaten. The duck was after all only a part of the carefully prepared meal. That it was a success was enough to put Norma into the true spirit of Thanksgiving Day. She knew the candied sweet potatoes, the salad and rolls and the mince pie were as they should be. Hearing Mark praise her cooking—as he did praise it—was more than reward for the hours she had spent in the tiny kitchen.

They dined by candlelight and the fruit centerpiece was as colorful and attractive as though it had been arranged on a silver platter instead of one of the plates from the "five and ten."

At the other side of the city in a palatial dining room an elaborate dinner was being served. Mark's father and mother sat at either end of that dining table. Half a dozen servants had spent their efforts preparing and serving the repast. It was the sort of Thanksgiving dinner to which Mark Travers had been accustomed all his life.

There could have been no greater contrast than the simple meal Norma had cooked and the one at which Mark's parents sat. Perhaps Mark was thinking something of this sort.

He leaned forward across the table and found the girl's hand. As he pressed it Mark said in a lowered voice, "You—you make me awfully happy. You're so sweet, Norma!"

All of which was ample reason for Norma Travers to rise next morning feeling the world was a grand place in which to live. She finished her tasks in the apartment. Then she dressed, putting on the old polo coat and snug hat she had worn so often on daily trips to the law office. She had errands to attend to downtown and was anxious to finish them and be home by noon.

The street car was not crowded and Norma found a seat immediately. That was because the morning rush had ended. She rode to Broad street and Eighth avenue and then left the car.

Norma walked rapidly. Mentally she was reviewing her list of purchases—first the saucer to replace the one she had broken, then the oil cloth and the yard of ribbon—

Her thoughts were interrupted by a shrill, familiar voice.

The board of public works met Monday evening and employed Burns & McDonald of Kansas City and Hiram Phillips of St. Louis as the two engineering firms to go the preliminary work as to taking the valuation of the present city water company and what improvements are needed, as to what a new plant would cost and as to making tests for well water as a source of city supply. The firm whose report and

Mr. Oakerson says that the Elm Grove school, north of Maryville, has done the greatest amount of improving of any of the forty he has visited. They have met the conditions for a credited school and will soon be placed on the list as a first-class rural school.

Grieve Morrow's Death

Condolences Come From All Over World.

Englewood, N. J., Oct. 6.—(AP)—There was speculation today as to what effect his passing would have upon politics, and there was wide world appraisal of his accomplishments in finance and statecraft; but dominating all else here was the stunning realization that Dwight W. Morrow, who but a day before had appeared in excellent health, was suddenly dead.

Funeral services will take place tomorrow at 3 p. m. at the First Presbyterian church at Englewood, of which the Rev. Dr. Carl H. Elmore, a personal friend of the Morrrows, is pastor.

Shanghai, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh disembarked from the British aircraft carrier Hermes at Woosung late today after having received word of the death of the latter's father, Senator Dwight W. Morrow, and immediately motored 18 miles to the American consulate general here.

Lindbergh said he would withhold any announcement as to whether the Far Eastern flight would be continued pending the dispatch of several cablegrams to America and arrival of the answers.

Washington, Oct. 6.—(AP)—President Hoover will not be able to attend the funeral tomorrow of Senator Dwight W. Morrow and has asked Vice President Curtis to represent him at the services.

Jumble-Lations

The copy reader was greatly disgruntled... He had worked his pencil long and furiously, at the same time shaking his head as if greatly agitated... "The person who wrote this must have filled up a shot gun with a thousand commas and then aimed at this piece of copy," he remarked... The World Series takes precedence over everything... During the game yesterday a distinguished American, financier and diplomat, Dwight Morrow died... Reports on the ball game were halted only long enough to send about a hundred word bulletins... The Southwest Iowans are complaining... At least we see the complaint in the papers... They say the Iowans are spending their money in Missouri buying fruit and the Iowans are being admonished by their editors to spend their money in their own community... A big part of the traffic through here lately seems to have been trucks and automobiles, bearing Iowa licenses, headed north and loaded with baskets of apples and pears... You can't get around the fact that Missouri apples have the finest flavor in the world... Alfalfa Bill Murray not only makes others, like the oil men, stand on their head, but he can do it himself... Yesterday he stood on his head for the amusement of the governor of Nebraska... "As the governor of Nebraska to the governor of Oklahoma..."

Al Capone Goes to Trial on Tax Evasion Charges

Gang Leader's Case Is Seen as Crucial Test of U. S. Campaign.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—(AP)—"Scarface Al" Capone, the swarthy, smiling ruler of Chicago's gangs, went on trial in U. S. district court today in an opening session that was as theatrical as it was insignificant.

Charged with evading taxes on an alleged six-year income of $1,038,854, the burly gang chieftain was brought before Judge James H. Wilkerson and permitted to substitute "not guilty" for the "guilty" plea he recently withdrew. The first duty was the selection of a jury.

Test of U. S. Strength.

For the government it was the crucial test of its campaign against Chicago gangsters.

Others had been tried and others convicted but this time it was the "Big Fellow" himself, the man whose name is synonymous with "gangs" all over the world. The government, throwing all of its resources into the battle, did not attempt to hide the fact that this was its most important gangster case.

For Capone it was a gamble. He had once pleaded guilty to the charges but when Judge Wilkerson announced he would not be bound by any agreement for leniency and that Capone would have to take the stand despite his guilty plea, the gangster decided to fight it out, to wager an acquittal against a stiffer sentence.

Enters With a Flourish.

The gangster's entrance by a side door and the opening of the trial lacked only a flourish of trumpets to give it the illusion of comic opera. The crowds gathered at every entrance to the federal building. It was their only chance to see him as the public was barred from the trial.

Some one asked if he was worried. He hesitated a moment and then replied:

"Well, to be frank with you—who wouldn't be?"

Preparations Are Made For Walkout Day at College

Preparations are being made at the College for annual walk-out day. All the students know about it is that tickets are on sale and they have been instructed to "be ready when the bugle blows."

The date is held in secrecy by the committee. Even the committee is uncertain just what day it will be. After the change of unsettled weather it can be expected at most any time.

An announcement of the 1931 walk-out day lists among the proposed activities a show, picnic, and dance. The program will follow the order of previous years. A picture show in one of the local theaters in the morning, a picnic at noon in a picnic park near here, and then dancing at the campus.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hart and daughters, Mary and Anne May of Sheridan, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carmichael of near Pickering.

Leaders of Both Parties to Meet With President

Country's Problems Will Be Discussed in White House Tonight.

Exact Plans Unknown

But Invitations Stress Importance of Meeting Which Is Third Of Its Kind This Year.

Washington, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Leaders in congress will sit tonight with President Hoover at the White House in a bi-partisan discussion of the country's problems.

Invited by the chief executive to consult with him on a matter of national importance, Democrats and Republicans who guide congressional legislative machinery interrupted their vacations to serve in the common cause.

They came to the capital unaware of the exact nature of the conference. The invitation which went from the White House to them Saturday night merely urged that they be present if possible because of the meeting's importance.

One of those upon whom President Hoover has relied for economic advice however, will not gather with his colleagues. The sudden death yesterday of Senator Dwight W. Morrow, of New Jersey, left a gap in the family of administration advisers.

It was the third time within a year that Mr. Hoover has sought the cooperation of the inter-party leaders in an effort to bring improved economic conditions. Before the last session of congress he obtained from Democratic steers a pledge to aid revitalizing legislation in congress. Again last June before he proposed a moratorium on governmental debts, the president sought the views and support of senators and representatives.

Washington, Oct. 6.—(AP)—President Hoover today approved plans for a seven-day conference of veterans administration officials here designed to secure economy and expedite "direct relief to the veterans of all wars."

The conference will begin Oct. 26.

Washington, Oct. 6.—(AP)—President Hoover has called a conference of real estate men and bankers to meet at the White House at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Hannibal Bank Is Robbed of Several Thousand Dollars

Hannibal, Mo., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Five men, all armed with pistols, held up the Farmers and Merchants' Bank of Hannibal about 11:15 a. m., today and escaped in an automobile with all the cash and negotiable securities in the bank. The amount of the loot was undetermined at once, but officers said it would be several thousand of dollars.

The five men, none of them masked, entered the bank yelling for all the employees and one customer to "lie down." One of the robbers went to the office of President John P. Holme on a balcony at the front of the building and forced him to lie on the floor.

Scooping up the cash and securities, the robbers ran to their automobile, parked nearby, and drove north. The north route would take them to the Mississippi river bridge that leads to Quincy, Ill., but officers believed they probably headed in a different direction after leaving town, rather than risk attempting to cross the bridge.

Hears Farmer Is Killed in Fight Near Leeton

Warrensburg, Mo., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Sheriff J. R. Black of Johnson county was informed this morning that Will Saxon, a farmer near Leeton had shot and seriously wounded Jim Salyer at the Salyer farm and had attempted to commit suicide after he returned to his own home.

Black, who left immediately for Leeton to investigate the incident, was informed that the men had engaged in a family quarrel. Salyer was shot in the mouth and neck. Saxon, the sheriff was informed, shot himself back of the ear.

RAYVILLE ASKS AID

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Governor Caulfield today received a telegram signed by the city mayor of Rayville, in Ray county, asking for government aid saying that a tornado had struck the town, and houses were unroofed. The chief executive said he would confer with General A. V. Adams of the Missouri National Guard to send tents to the town if they were needed.

Rev. Thompson Is Head of New Welfare Board

Social Agency Which Replaces Old Board Is Organized Last Night.

The Rev. H. D. Thompson, pastor of the M. E. church, South, was named resident of the Maryville Social Welfare Board which met last night to organize. All of the members of the newly created organization which succeeds the Welfare Board were present with the exception of James Carpenter, who was out of the city.

The board will meet next Monday night at which time the by-laws will be drawn up and the work of the board will be discussed and the procedure that it will follow outlined.

The Social Welfare Board employed Mrs. Fern Crull as welfare worker. Mrs. Crull has been secretary of the former Welfare Board and acted in the capacity of welfare worker.

Mr. Carpenter was elected vice-president of the board and Miss Frances Lelley was elected secretary-treasurer.

The new board extended an invitation to the members of the old Welfare Board to act as an advisory committee. Those on the advisory committee are: Mr. Cornell from the M. E. church, South; James B. Cummins from St. Patrick's church; George Tunstall from the St. Mary's church; W. A. Miller from the First Christian church; Frank Jaker from the Baptist church; Hal Jaker from the Presbyterian church; Iren Lanning from the Christian Scientist church; and John Gooden from the Colored M. E. church.

The member from the First M. E. church is to be filled as Mr. Carpenter was representative from this church to the board.

The board will hold regular meetings at 7:30 o'clock on the second Monday nights of each month.

Rev. Thompson, Mrs. Paul Slison and Miss Holliday were named on the committee to draw up the by-laws.

Edison Grows Weaker and Death Is Near, Physician Announces

West Orange, N. J., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Thomas A. Edison was in a semi-conscious condition today and his death is but a matter of days, his personal physician, announced this morning.

The physician, Dr. Hubert S. Howe, said that the aged inventor's mental condition was "lethargic."

Dr. Howe made this statement after issuing his daily morning bulletin in which he said Mr. Edison had spent a fair night and that there was little change in his condition.

Mr. Edison now is carried from his bed to his chair, Dr. Howe said. Up until yesterday, he could walk the several feet between them, assisted by his attendants.

POLICE CHIEF SLAIN

Body of Depew, Okla., Officer Is Found in an Alley.

Depew, Okla., Oct. 6.—(AP)—George Luckett, chief of police here, was found shot to death today. The officer's body was found in an alley at the rear of the Fox garage here. A. C. Fox, garage man who lives across the alley from the garage, said he heard a shot at 3 a. m., but did not investigate. The body was found at 6 a. m.

Indications were that Luckett had struggled with his assailant or had been dragged, his pistol and belt had been taken. He had apparently been slain with a shotgun.

Makes An Appointment.

Jefferson City, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Governor Caulfield today announced appointment of Frank P. Weatherford as a member of the Franklin county court to succeed Judge Jesse Ekey, who died several days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Null returned from Marshall, yesterday evening, where they had been on business.

Parliament Will Be Dissolved and Elections Held

British Legislative Body Will End Present Session Tomorrow.

Elections October 27

MacDonald Will Make Radio Plea Urging People to Support Coalition Government.

London, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Parliament will be dissolved tomorrow and a general election will be held on Oct. 27. Prime Minister MacDonald announced today.

Mr. MacDonald will appeal to the nation in a radio speech tomorrow night.

He will ask that the coalition government be given a free hand. Subsequently the leaders of the other parties will issue their own appeals, dovetailing their party programs with the government's platform.

Each party and each bloc within the parties will campaign on the basis of its own beliefs, regarding such outstanding issues as the tariff and the general fiscal policy.

When the new commons meets early in November Mr. MacDonald—assuming that he wins a seat—will have the job of welding the divergent sections into a workable unit.

Ship-to-Shore Mail Plane Is Believed to Have Crashed

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 6.—(AP)—The crash of a plane believed to be the ship-to-shore "New York" carrying mail from the liner Bremen was reported today by William Faulkner, light keeper at Bur Coat.

Whizzing along in the darkness, the craft was heard to come down heavily on Cobequid Bay, he said. An explosion followed and cries echoed over the bay, but when Faulkner and other rescuers rowed out on to the bay, they could find no trace of men or plane.

A mail plane manned by Friob Simon, pilot, and Rudolph Wauchne, mechanic, took off from the North German Lloyd liner Bremen yesterday when she was 630 miles off Cape Race, N. F., in an attempt to get the mail to New York 29 hours faster than the ship could reach there.

Plying blind through fog and against headwinds, they reached Sydney, N. S., last night, and took to the air again about midnight.

Richard New Is Named to County Highway Commission

Richard New, who lives west of Maryville, was appointed yesterday by the county court to the county highway commission. New, a Republican, succeeds John Neil of Graham, who has been a member of the commission since it was created. In sending in his resignation to the court, Mr. Neil said that four years on the commission was plenty. Mr. New was appointed to fill out the unexpired term.

Large Barn on Arthur Anderson Farm Burns

A large barn on the Arthur Anderson farm, six miles southeast of Graham, was discovered to be on fire about 3:30 Monday afternoon.

The Graham fire truck responded immediately to the call, but the fire had gained such headway, and with a strong wind blowing, the barn soon burned to the ground, together with the hay, some corn and farm implements.

Cause of the fire is unknown. The barn was insured.

PLOWING CONTEST SCHEDULE.

Four and Five Horse Contestants Will Be in Morning, Others After Noon.

The schedule for the plowing contests to be held at the Gex farm near Graham Thursday were announced today. The four and five horse plows will be held at 9:30 o'clock and the six and eight horse plows at 1:30 o'clock. Six entries have been received from Holt county. Wayne Dinsmore will give a talk at 1 o'clock. Mr. Dinsmore is a representative of the Horse Association of America.

M. T. Foster of Pueblo, Colo., brother of Mrs. W. O. Garrett, arrived here today for a visit at the home of Mayor and Mrs. Garrett. He was accompanied by Charles Kite of Pueblo who formerly lived here and at Quitman.

Mrs. J. C. Johnson of St. Joseph and Mrs. Lynn Bevers of Bedford, Ia., are spending the week with their mother, Mrs. W. T. Gray.

Fire Destroys a House

Residence on East Cooper Burns Last Night.

Fire discovered about 10 o'clock last night completely destroyed the four room, single story, house belonging to the Bosley estate at 1110 East Cooper street. The damage, which was estimated at $750, was partially covered by insurance.

Mrs. Alzada Bosley, mother of Mrs. Marion Luger, lived in the house up until her death about two years ago, and since that time the house has been rented. About two weeks ago the occupants moved out of the house, and it has been vacant since. Neighborhood children have been in the house several times, gaining entrance through windows, but whether they had anything to do with the blaze, or whether it was caused by a tramp, is unknown.

When Mr. Luger arrived at the house the entire interior was ablaze. He had been called by Mrs. Runnels, who lives next door. The chemical truck arrived about the same time as Mr. Luger did, but the hose truck did not arrive until late because of trouble in starting the engine.

German Foreign Minister Offers His Resignation

Julius Curtius Acts to Remove Obstacles From Bruening's Path.

Berlin, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Foreign Minister Julius Curtius, whose policies have been the center of repeated political storms, today submitted his resignation to Chancellor Bruening. Official circles understood it would be accepted.

In his letter to the Chancellor, he said:

"In a conversation we had the day after my return from Geneva I made clear to you that without regard for the parliamentary situation I wanted to resign from the government. I now deem it in every way imperative that the question of my retirement be cleared up. I therefore beg you to recommend to the Reich president my discharge."

His withdrawal was considered as a removal of one of the difficult obstacles facing Chancellor Bruening in obtaining the parliamentary support the government will need when the Reichstag convenes Oct. 13.

With the Social Democrats restless over wage reductions, the continual outbursts of dissatisfaction with Curtius from parties supporting the government made the cabinet's position acutely embarrassing.

Herr Curtius' successor is at present problematical, although Baron Von Neurath, ambassador to London, has been prominently mentioned.

Two Robbers Hide in Missouri Bank and Escape With $5,000

Mountain View, Mo., Oct. 6.—(AP)—Two men who apparently had hidden in a directors' room during last night, robbed the Peoples' Bank of Mountain View of a sum estimated at about $5,000, or more, shortly after the bank opened today.

When Miss Virgie McCullom, bookkeeper went into the directors' room after opening time this morning, she was confronted by two men dressed in work clothes and holding pistols.

The robbers then moved into an adjoining room and forced J. Rinehart, the cashier; J. C. Epperson, a customer, and Miss McCullom to lie on the floor. Rinehart was ordered to open the safe and vault, however, and after taking the money, the robbers left by a rear entrance and escaped in a car parked in an alley. It is believed they went west toward Willow Springs on highway 60.

Earnshaw Hurls Shutout as A's Triumph 3 to 0

Martin Is Only Redbird Able to Hit Big Righthander's Delivery.

Evans Count in Series

Fox's Homer In Sixth Starts Barrage From Athletics' Big Guns—Johnson Driven Out of Box.

Shibe Park, Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics' big gunners, headed by Jimmy Foxx and his tremendous home run drive in the sixth inning, defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 3 to 0 to even the world series count at two games all.

Big George Earnshaw, Connie Mack's stellar righthander, equaled Burleigh Grimes feat of yesterday by pitching two-hit baseball. Only "Pepper" Martin, scintillating Redbird centerfielder, was able to solve "Jarge's" delivery. Pepper got a single and a double in his three times at bat, thus robbing Earnshaw of a no-hit game.

Sylvester Johnson, who started for the Cardinals, was battered out in the barrage that included Foxx's home run. He left the game after two were out in the sixth after allowing nine hits. Jim Lindsey, who followed him gave way to a pinch hitter in the eighth, allowed one hit and Paul Derringer, giant rookie beaten by the Athletics in the first game, finished without being hit safely.

The players' pool for the series was closed at the end of the fourth game at a figure slightly in excess of $320,000.

Earnshaw's masterpiece, following on the heels of Grimes' yesterday, duplicated a record for series play made 25 years ago.

In an ancient series between two Chicago teams, Big Ed Walsh, of the White Sox and "Three-Fingered" Brown, of the Cubs, pitched successive two-hit games.

The attendance today was 22,295 and receipts $152,735, the same figures as for yesterday's Cardinals conquest.

K. C. Theaters Bombed

Many Lives Are Endangered by Series of Explosions.

Kansas City, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Many lives were endangered and property damaged by the explosion of bombs early today in three motion picture theaters here whose managers have joined nearly a score of others in refusing to employ two operators in the projection room in accordance with union demands.

Police this morning received reports of persons being thrown from the force of the blast, although no serious injuries were known to have resulted.

The Eljoo Theater at 4945 Prospect was attacked at 2:13 a. m., a short time after a two story garage being erected by the state highway commission had been damaged by an explosion.

Less than an hour later the National Theater at 5314 Independence avenue was damaged by an explosion. The Admiral Theater at 1312 East Eighth street was bombed at 3 a. m. The loss was estimated by the manager at $5,000.

Declaring past experience had demonstrated that "it is almost impossible to obtain convictions" in bombing cases, Chief of Police L. W. Siegfried instructed his commanding officers "to shoot them and bring them in."

"If we cannot convict in court, we'll convict with bullets," the chief said.
